

ANTIQUES

ALEXANDER von WESTENHOLZ

Aesthetic Movement Oak Desk

An exceptional and extremely good-looking oak desk c.1880 by Rumney and Love of Liverpool. Stamped to both tops of the cupboard doors which enclose a shelved section. The top is sprung to release a secretaire section of sloping sections topped with dark leather and decorative pigeon holes. It also retains the original keys.

104cm wide x 50cm deep x 110cm high

£2,750.00