A set of Japanese Watercolours

An exquisite and beautifully painted set of late 19thC Japanese watercolours of birds.

The detail is extremely intricate and the brushwork expertly executed. Each card measures about 16cm wide x 19cm high and has another image on the reverse. They can be framed with a double mount and glazed on each side so both images can be appreciated.

Oddly, the reverse image of each is upside down so a brass ring on the bottom and top of each frame will facilitate an easy switch!

This is a really stunning set of paintings - there are about 20 pictures for sale in all.

The price is for each picture (framed) NOT for the set!

16cm wide 19cm high (framed 27cm x 29.5cm high)
